

7th Annual TRP Social @ Petroff Gallery

Published: November 18, 2010

One hundred people gathered at the Petroff Gallery in Toronto Thursday evening to celebrate with TRP members, clients and special guests.

The venue was beautiful, the food divine and the energy simply magical. Steve Petroff, Director of the Petroff gallery donated two $100 gift certificates as prizes drawn that night. Guests to this private event were introduced to painter Cesa d'Ornellas-Levine and Hand-Blown Glass Artist Alex Anagnostou, whose brilliant creations introduced us all to the world of beautiful ceramics, glass, paintings, and sculpture.

Catering was offered by JCatering & Josh Okorofsky, and photography by Mondo.

The evening lived up to it's hype of promising visual and culinary magic appealing to all our senses. Bravo TRP!
